

About the Instructor: Sensei Javed Khan

Sensei Javed Khan is a 3rd degree black belt and has been studying the art of Shotokan karate for the past 30yrs. He was 12yrs old when he started training and ever since then has been an avid karateka. He has trained under numerous instructors from Japan to name a few it includes Sensei Soichi Sasaki, Sensei Tanaka.

Sensei Javed Khan hails from Mumbai India and his teacher from India is Sensei Anil Garodia (6 dan Black Belt). Currently is affiliated to AJKAI and trains under Sensei Rob DeAngelis (7 dan black belt). The home dojo of East coast AJKAI is located in Solesbury, PA.

Sensei Javed Khan migrated to the United states in 1999, ever since then he has been teaching the community kids of the ISCJ (Islamic Society of Central Jersey). He has had over 20 black belts graduate under his guidance and teaching, of which two has been girls one of which is currently pursuing her Nee Dan (2nd Degree black belt). In 2016 Sensei Javed has been invited by the ICMC (Islamic community of Mercer County) and Masjid Al-Minhal in Edison, to come and teach the kids in their respective communities.